RE: MUR 6606

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing in response to Jeff Jordan's letter dated July 18 regarding MUR 6606.

Our accounting department was advised to write a check to Mr. Tarkanian's campaign. Inadvertently, the check was cut from our corporate account and not from my boss' account as he requested.

Unfortunately, our office did not catch this error before the check was sent out to Mr. Tarkanian's campaign. However, as soon as his campaign discovered the error, we were refunded the money by Mr. Tarkanian and a personal check was issued.

To sum up, at no time was there any intention to donate to Mr. Tarkanian's campaign through our corporate account. This simply was an accounting error which we rectified upon notification of the error. In that regard, we hope this explanation clarifies the circumstances surrounding this oversight.

Please do not hesitate to contact my office with any questions.

Sincerely,

Melissa Olivas
Vice-President of Finance
